

What is SIFTS?

SIFTS (Student Inventory for Technology Supports) is a quick and easy web-based survey tool developed primarily to support IEP teams who need assistance in one part of the AT assessment process, matching student needs and strengths to AT features.

Assistive Technology &
Accessible Educational Materials Center

sifts.ocali.org

Why SIFTS?

- Matches student needs and strengths to AT (Assistive Technology) features
- Builds team knowledge of AT features
- Quick and easy online tool
- Easily usable by school teams, parents, consumers and others
- Complete one or several domains based on student need
- Provides embedded text, picture and video supports
- Tracks changes in student data over time
- Stores student results on a secure website
- Developed by a multi-disciplinary team of AT professionals
- Always Free

